

Announcing the AES Follet online Book Fair!

Dear AES Families ~

Exciting news! Our AES Follett Book online Book Fair begins November 5th and runs through the 20th of November. What a wonderful opportunity to purchase holiday gifts for your children and to benefit literacy at AES as well!

The Fair is available for browsing at this time, enabling you to plan ahead! Students will also be previewing the online selections during their library classes. The link is on the school website as well as on our AES Library Catalog page. The eFair can also be accessed at:

efairs.follettbookfairs.com

Class code: Z2Y5W

Books will be delivered to the school. Remote students' books will be available for drive-by pick up at the school. Remember, supporting a love of reading is critical to student success. And ~ for every purchase made we will earn up to 40% back in rewards to help support literacy at AES.

We hope you will be able to participate in this fall's eFair! Please contact me with any questions you might have. Happy browsing!
